Milwaukee County Supervisor Peggy Romo West Participates in “Old South Side Day”

Free event highlights historical part of Milwaukee

(Milwaukee) – A family-friendly event will take place Saturday, July 20 to highlight a historical Milwaukee neighborhood. “Old South Side Day” is being held after the book “Milwaukee’s Old South Side” was published about the area from Maple Street to Cleveland Avenue and from Austin Street to 27th Street. The book shows the rich history and shares stories of people who lived in this community.

Saturday’s event will be from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at Kosciusko Park. There will be a free lunch including dishes made with neighborhood recipes. The family can also enjoy music all afternoon and there will be Mexican and Polish dancers performing.

Several trees will be planted in honor of local officials, including Supervisor Romo West.
